Last Issue of "Piping For Pipers" Announced

This is the last issue of "Piping for The Pipers" that will be printed this year. Due to the fact that each teacher's load in class work is being increased, it has been decided to discontinue the school paper. The students, and especially the staff, wish to thank Mr. Pope for his consideration in giving the school activities a corner in his paper. They appreciate it immensely, and it has added a great deal to school life.

Stable Europe Needed For World Peace

(An article condensed by W. D. Bristow)

The reconstruction of Europe will bring on some political difficulties. It is said that geography is the mother of history. By looking at a 1939 world map we find that Europe consisted of about 30 countries of various sizes. Some were so small they could hardly be seen on the map. Through the center ran a string of large countries. Today, nearly all these large and small countries are under Hitler's rule or his allies. Naturally, these countries want to be independent. But they also want to be secure. Their present fate shows that they were not secure in the Europe made by the Treaty of Versailles. Not only that, but their existence unbalanced Europe. They merely make the way of the aggressor easier.

On a map of 1914 Europe is less patchy. The main body of country was large countries. The power was evenly distributed. The peace of Europe depended on understanding between these countries. The first World War resulted in breaking up of several large empires. A bunch of new countries developed. None of these states could defend themselves against a European power. Europe was doomed to war unless the would-be conqueror could be restrained.

They first tried disarming Germany and next collective security in the League of Nations. The example of Germany has shown that no nation can be completely disarmed and no "collective security" can be secure so long as peace is not in the interest of all. War broke out in 1939. This proved the weakness of the European structure.

How can a secure continent be brought about? "The destruction of Germany", say some. Even if it is possible to destroy a modern nation of eighty million people, the cutting up of Germany would not make Europe secure. Aggression has not been wholly confined to the axis.

Another suggested solution is the union of all European countries. However, this cannot be realized by a mere drop of the hat.

Those who are studying this problem say that there will be a long armistice. During this period a reconstruction will be worked out. What form this will take no one knows yet. It might be a League of Nations, with more democratic principles than the old, or it might be a gradually expanding alliance of democratic powers.

If we want a world free from war, we must first eliminate violence within the countries of the world. The basis of membership in any league must be political and economic democracy. There must be a guarantee of the basic individual rights, the security of life, and liberty, and equality before the law; for we have learned the lesson, a chain is no stronger than its weakest link. A federation of nations that uphold these ideals might be the answer to the question of peace for the world.

Mid-Semester Exams Close First Semester

Many of the students of Hamlin let out a great sigh of relief Thursday afternoon as the termination of exams marked the close of the first semester's work. Reports, including both six-weeks and semester grades, will be issued to the students next Thursday.

The beginning of the second semester will see little change in the school schedule. However, there are two new courses added to the curriculum—commercial geography and Texas History. Both are half-credit subjects and will serve as electives for graduation. Miss Willis will teach Texas History and the band director will teach commercial geography.

Civics Classes

Give Reports

During the past two weeks, the members of the civics classes, under the supervision of Mr. Hubert Morton, have given some excellent reports. These reports are based on government affairs which the group has studied or which pertains to the present war. The army, navy, and marines were stressed in importance with the future peace of America and her democratic allies. Other reports were on government schools, the American Red Cross, training camps for the soldiers, and the British and co-operation with the allied countries that are fighting for freedom.

Senior English Classes

Study Literature

The senior English classes will finish their work with the grammar work books this week and will start studying literature immediately. During the next term they will study all phases of prose and poetry, including one of Shakespeare's plays, possibly Macbeth.

This is a welcome announcement for many students, who sometimes express their preference for literature over grammar.

Library Fines

There are still several students who owe library fines. Until these fines are paid, the students cannot receive their report cards.

Grocery Deliveries May Be Reduced

When Pearl Harbor was hit, it was the first step towards great changes in every community in America. Then Manila and the Dutch rubber plantations and down to every auto trail in this land went the danger of less rubber and finally no rubber for transportation.

You know America, as no other nation in the world, has its transportation on rubber.

Curtis Martin made a timely remark one morning this week, when he said, "Our soldiers should set up the cry, we're making the world safe for rubber." In fact, that is part of the struggle, "To make the world free for rubber."

Now, this leads us down to Hamlin. Several days ago Hamlin grocery merchants announced curtailment of deliveries . . . to three per day. Since then many of their customers have urged them to cut it down to two, and some say ONE. In fact, it may come to NONE.

You remember, or do you forget, that in the war years of 1914-18, deliveries were cut out. Then it was done with little mules, and jigs. You remember then several private haulers did odd jobs. Hamlin now needs one or two small hack-haulers for odd jobs.

The grocerymen are going to face several things that they will cut out from their customers, if the war lasts long. No deliveries and no sacks. Already paper sacks are hard to get. It might be that the time will come when they will tell you to bring your own bags or boxes or carry what you buy in your arms. Some enterprising Hamlin woman will be seen with a fancy ducking sack or sacks entering the grocery store to have them loaded up. That would be good economy even if there was no war raging.

After talking with a few of the grocery owners, we feel free to suggest that Hamlin housewives start at once to order what they may need for the day, early in the morning and enable the stores to do most of their deliveries around nine A. M. and finally none in the afternoon. Get accustomed to less service and when no such modern service is available, it will not be so hard.

Red Cross Dance Sold 513 Tickets at Anson

It seems from reports that the Pioneer Hall in Anson on Monday night proved valuable to the Jones Co. Red Cross funds.

They sold 513 tickets at 55c each. Hamlin's quota received $25.00. This and other contributions still leaves our $750 quota over $150.00 short. But other funds will be secured to lift the quota over.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Terrell went to Dallas Tuesday to meet their son, Cadet J. B. Terrell Jr., from Ellington Field. From here J. B. will go to a field at Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Loy Fry, who underwent an operation last week in the Baylor Hospital, Dallas, is reported to be recovering nicely.

Edwin Fizer Cashier Wichita Nat'l. Bank

There are a lot of people in Hamlin who will be glad to learn of the promotion of Edwin Fizer, from auditor of the Wichita Falls National Bank to cashier. Edwin has been connected with that bank since 1926, and each year and ever so often has been promoted to higher positions.

The Herald is especially proud of Edwin, for it was in the Herald that he did his last work before going into the Hamlin bank. We have watched this young man, with no pull, except a widowed mother and two sisters, back of him. His advancement in banking has been by constant hard work, doing more than was expected, cultivating an increasing pleasing personality, and shouldering responsibilities far greater than most men his senior. Congratulations, Ed Fizer, you have proved that "it can be done".

Jones Co. Tire Board Set-Up Is Announced

The Jones County Defense Council met in joint session with the County Tire Rationing Board in the City Hall in Stamford Monday night, January 12th. The meeting was for the purpose of completing the organization of the Tire Rationing Board.

Present were J. D. Shackelford, Stamford; Irvin Sanders, Anson, and C. M. Francis, mayor, Stamford; Joe Culbertson, mayor, Hamlin; J. M. Jarnett, mayor, Anson, and Gilbert Smith, County Judge, members of the Jones County Defense Council.

The Board asks that all tire dealers who desire to be made inspectors, make application in writing, giving the name of the tire company or dealers and the name of the person you desire to have named as a tire inspector, and submit three specimens of the inspector's signature, each on a small separate piece of paper. This is to be mailed to: Jones County Tire Rationing Board, Post Office Box 1206, Stamford, Texas.

J. D. Shackelford was named chairman of the Board and the headquarters were set up in the Chamber of Commerce office in Stamford with Chas. Green and Mrs. L. I. Bennett acting as secretaries.

The Board set as their meeting dates on Tuesday and Friday afternoons in each week, the first meeting to be held on Tuesday afternoon, January 20, at which time only will applications be passed on for tires.

The applications for tires will be obtained from the tire dealers and not from the tire board.

The Defense Council asks that the public co-operate in making the work of the Rationing Board and the secretaries as easy as possible, and to keep in mind that the members of the Tire Rationing Board as well as Mr. Green and Mrs. Bennett are patriotically donating their services.

When the tire dealers have made written application to the Board, the Board will appoint the Inspectors and furnish them with application blanks which must be studied and filled out properly before being presented to the Tire Rationing Board, as no application can be changed or altered after it has been signed.

Gilbert Smith, Chairman
Jones Co. Defense Council

George Miller Died In Denver, Colorado

Information was received in Hamlin Wednesday that George Miller, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Miller, formerly of Hamlin, and now of San Angelo, had died on Tuesday in Denver, Colorado. He leaves a wife, the former Lola Dean of Hamlin. Burial was in San Angelo on Thursday, Jan. 15th.

Mrs. Faye Hartwell Atkinson has accepted the position of Secretary at the F. & M. National Bank, since January 5. She takes the place of Mrs. Cecil Sellers (Miss Clara Louise Shelburne) who is now making her home in California.

FORMER HAMLIN NURSE WRITES FROM HAWAII

(Below is a reproduction of a letter written by a nurse in Hawaii, and published in a Clovis, New Mexico paper. The nurse, Mrs. Pauline Conner, formerly worked in Hamlin with Dr. Estes, and her husband was with the Waggoner Drug Store). The letter is as follows:

The letter, from Pauline Conner, was written in a Honolulu hospital on Dec. 11, four days after the attack, during which she aided in handling hundreds of the attack victims.

Dear Mr. Morrison:
The first air raid is over. We came through without a hit (hospital). Bombs fell all around us while we worked like mad.

I was in bed Sunday a. m. when the raid began, but as soon as I heard ambulances screaming I knew it wasn't an anti-aircraft show the boys were giving us. I turned on my radio just in time to hear the announcer say: "Get off the streets—this is an enemy air attack." In about 30 minutes we were all in uniform, working like mad.

The first few brought in were dead, but soon the wounded were pouring in and lined up two deep in the emergency and receiving rooms, being examined and assorted for immediate surgery or delayed surgery.

All available rooms were going full speed. We were working in teams. No time was lost, one case in and the other out. All day we worked without resting for a moment.

Soon the Red Cross was on the job, sending us donors for transfusions. By mid-afternoon we were running two rooms taking blood for plasma and transfusions.

The calm efficiency of the entire hospital staff under fire was wonderful. All convalescing patients were sent home.

Before the first bombing attack had died down, the emergency units were mobilizing, doctors, nurses, nurses' aids, stretcher bearers, ambulance drivers, dispatch riders all to their stations. Before afternoon we were receiving patients with red M (morphine) on forehead and blue T (tetanus), indicating they had been given first aid at some station before being brought to surgery.

Night came. Martial law had been declared. Red Cross stations had been set up. The army and navy were in complete charge. Guards were around the hospital. We settled down for our first real blackout.

The night was still as death at first, but soon the bombers returned, and firing continued spasmodically through the night.

We felt our way around the hospital by flashlight, dim with blue paper.

Dawn came. An enemy bomber flew low over the hospital and was intercepted by one of our planes. A dogfight began over the hospital. Machine gun bullets sprayed the sidewalks, and everyone fell flat to get away from the bullets. The gray dawn turned to daylight, and we began cleaning up surgery cases left over from Sunday.

Surgery was put on wartime basis. Rooms set up ready for action. Supplies were being made by voluntary workers. A steady stream of blood donors came in all day. Blood for plasma, blood for wounded, gallons stored away ready for use.

About 5 p. m. Monday, some doctor or Red Cross worker brought in a quart of brandy for the nurses and doctors. We drank a toast to the red, white and blue and began getting ready for our second night of blackout.

Surgery windows were sprayed with black paint, all cracks plastered. We were ready for night surgery—all lights covered with blue paper.

The night settled down still as death. Gray rain clouds moved across the sky. Occasionally the moon came through. The island was black, and we were waiting tense and alert for the first hum of enemy planes.

I am on call for anesthesia, so

Mrs. J. T. Embrey Died In Sweetwater Hospital

Mrs. J. T. Embrey died Friday morning, January 9, at 11:00 o'clock in the Sweetwater Hospital following an illness of seven weeks.

Hazel Hunter was born September 9, 1917 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunter near Hamlin and had grown to young womanhood in this community. At the time of her death she was 24 years and 4 months of age, and while she had been desperately ill for some days, her untimely death came as a great shock to her family and host of friends.

On August 10, 1940, she was married to J. T. Embrey, since which time she and her husband had made their home near Hamlin.

At the age of 18 she united with the First Baptist church in Hamlin where the funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2:30 by the pastor, the Rev. H. E. East.

Surviving are the husband, the parents, three sisters, Evalena and Faye Hunter, both of Hamlin, and Mrs. Burnie Reed Jr., of Stamford, and one brother, W. L. Hunter, of Hamlin.

Interment was in East Cemetery under the direction of the Barrow Funeral Directors.

Pallbearers were Arlie Cassle, Roy Gilbreath, Earnest Lee, John Walton, W. C. Russell and Fred Carpenter.

Roy Edwin Tims Safe On A Pacific Island

Mrs. Bill Tims received an indirect message Wednesday that her son, Roy Edwin, had landed on some Pacific Island safe and OK.

For many weeks not only the Tims family but most people of Hamlin have been anxious about Roy's welfare. He and part of his artillery outfit were shipped from Camp Bowie for a place called "Plum", meaning to some far off island and they could have been intercepted by the Japs about the time of Pearl Harbor attack.

The message came to an officer's wife in Abilene that they had landed and this gave hope that Roy was also safe.

Orchard Field Day Monday, Jan. 19th

J. F. Rosborough, Extension Service Horticulturist from A. & M. College will be in charge of two orchard field day meetings in Jones county on Monday, January 19th. At 9 A. M. those interested will meet at Judge Crow's orchard located two miles south of Boyd Chapel school. At 2 P. M., a similar meeting will be held at John Bradshaw's orchard located one mile east and one mile south of Wilson school.

Mr. Rosborough will discuss any orchard problems that you might have. Such things as soil, locating orchards, selecting trees, setting out orchards, protecting trees from rabbits, spraying program, budding, grafting, and pruning are things that will receive special attention.

This meeting has been arranged to help all people in the county that are interested in a home or commercial orchard. You are urged to attend.

Bob Barrow went to Stephenville last Sunday to visit his sister, Mrs. Sid Baham who was seriously ill.

I sleep in surgery on a cot. Monday night we had three deliveries and two accident cases. I was glad to see the dawn come without another raid.

We were happy to hear the S. S. Lurline had arrived safely in San Francisco. All mail will be censored, and I have no idea if this will ever reach home or not. Cable messages are censored, and very few going through right now.

But perhaps one day you will get this. So give my love to all the girls and best wishes for the future of the people of the mainland. We are your first line of defense in the Pacific and will try to care for the boys while they keep the Red, White and Blue waving over Blue Hawaii.

Love to all,
PAULINE CONNER

Save Money On Taxes

We are once more taking this method of reminding you that the City Council has authorized the remission of all penalties and interest on delinquent taxes for the years up to and including the year 1939, provided, however, that this shall apply only if delinquent taxes including 1940 are paid at one time, and not later than January 31, 1942.

We would like to point out also that if these taxes are not paid, or have not had a satisfactory partial payment plan worked out with respect to them on or before January 31, 1942, it is the intention of the City to commence collection of said delinquent taxes by the use of suits.

Naturally, it is not the desire of the City to work a hardship on any tax paying citizen, however, taxes must be paid in order to maintain your civic government, and if you do not bear your share of the burden, other action must be resorted to.

The partial payment plan is still available to those who wish to use such plan in taking care of their delinquent taxes, so if you are unable to pay all your delinquent taxes at once, this course is still open to you.

Please come by the City Hall immediately and make some satisfactory arrangement to take care of these delinquent taxes.

Sincerely yours,

J. B. EAKIN, Tax Collector

Seniors Lose Sponsor

Miss Blake, who is head of the English department and teaches Spanish, will begin teaching Spanish in Abilene High school soon after mid-semester exams. This year marked the second year for Miss Blake in Hamlin High school. She served as junior sponsor last year and this year the seniors are sorry to lose their sponsor. She has also been sponsor of "Piping for The Pipers" since the beginning of the school year.

The students of Hamlin High wish her good luck and success in her promotion.

Among The Pipers

Don C., aren't you glad when Sunday rolls around so you can get your nails filed?

Billy Faye, we know you were very happy last week end. Could it be that Garland had something to do with it?

It seems that Clara S. has taken a liking to Anson. Could it be a certain guy called Buddie Burleson? Thelma never give up. We all look for letters, and they sometimes are late.

Zelma is it getting to be a habit? This Arthur Beacham with the black wavy hair?

If any one wants to know the art of proposing just ask Buddie Newberry and Clara S.

Joe, what business do you have at the south end of the hall? Richard had better watch out.

SLUSH FROM THE SLIMES

We hear that in fifth period English class that there is an awful romance between no other than Nora Faye Bond and Tommy Kidd.

There are some of these freshmen girls interested in some junior boys, such as Jo Nell Newberry and Verna Mae Colwell.

Do you know Corky Hudson? Well he and a sophomore girl have up a case. Just ask Jauncy Hamric and see what she says.

Could it be that Earlene and Mar-to are falling for each other?

We wonder why Judy insists on a junior boy. Lucky boy, L. B.

Oh, come Jonnie, you can get a girl. Don't worry just because Nell moved, and now Mary.

I heard that J. K. Colley watched out the old year and watched in a new. He wasn't alone either, first a read head and then came a blonde.

He's a Real Piper—

SMITH!

This tall senior boy played on the Piper foot ball team. He likes Mickey Rooney and Betty Grable and his hobby is studying how to win and influence the fairer sex. His favorite subject is bookkeeping and sport is foot ball. He is partial to blondes (especially one). He doesn't know what college he is going to attend but his ambition is aviation.

Since this is the last issue of "Piping for The Pipers", the Hamlin High school student body salutes along with Earl Smith all the other Pipers whose names have not been individually listed in this column.

J. D. Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hayes is another Hamlin boy caught in the Philippine army. J. D. volunteered last year and up to date nothing has been heard from him.

J. C. Turner, from Camp Bowie had a short visit at home the past week end. Don't blame any soldier boy for coming over to sleep and eat at home as long as possible.

And Inzer Pharmacy

J. Starr Inzer is to attend an important veterinary meeting in Ft. Worth, this week. For a number of years Mr. Inzer has been especially interested in animal serums, poultry vaccines, and veterinary medical specialties. The increased use of such products by local livestock and poultry raisers is due largely to the progressive Inzer's knowledge of veterinary medicine, which he willingly imparts, and to his intelligent recommendations. As a result death losses among our animal population here have been decidedly reduced.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Norris will leave this week for Bremond where they recently bought a farm and will make their home. Before leaving he had the Herald sent to his new address, and also left a renewal for his son Bill, who is in service on the Pacific Coast.

BAPTIST CHURCH

John R. Mott has said: "We all need a time of repair each week. We need time in which to store the battery with spiritual energy. We need to gain reserve power. We need to augment our power of resistance. We need from time to time to take our spiritual bearings, and find out where we are and whither we are tending."

We seek, in the services of the First Baptist church to provide an atmosphere for such a check-up. If you come seeking such an atmosphere, you will find it, and your souls will be blessed. Come Sunday with a prayerful attitude determined we are tending."

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Ps. 119:97 "Oh how I love thy law! It is my meditation all the day."

Do we really love the law of God? Do we love to read the Bible and meditate upon its teachings? Do various happenings through the day cause us to think of passages that we have read? Can we truthfully say the following with the poet, J. Fawcett?

How precious is the Book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its precepts shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

SERVICE in a pinch

MAYBE you've got a boy helping to do the job "over there." He's a fine lad... a brave one, too. It's a big job he's got.

And you're certain—and we're certain—that when all real Americans concentrate their efforts on production of supplies and actual fighting equipment, and insist upon discontinuing the enormous non-defense spending spree by non-productive political agencies, then this fine, brave soldier boy will get the job done.

That means there remains a truly big job to be done here at home. Everybody left behind must help.

Our own special job—this company's—it two-fold: First—we must provide the light and power needed by army camps, air training schools, and defense industries in this West Texas country. Second—we must continue serving your home and business, doing all this in an economical manner so that we may also continue contributing all possible tax support direct for defense purposes.

We must conserve copper, rubber and automobiles. Our cars and trucks were reduced from 334 in 1931 to 235 in 1941. With further reduction now, many will do double duty in order to take care of the public's electric service requirements over a 45,000-square-mile area.

These vehicles, in 1941, traveled a total of 3,506,872 miles, or 140 times around the globe! Many of them have been rebuilt, and now will be rebuilt several times.

With a shortage of tires, cars and trucks, the job of maintaining the same type of good service in 1942 will be an increasingly hard task. It will require more maintenance and rebuilding throughout. This, we will continue to do, making replacement parts in our own repair shop, if necessary, to maintain the continuity of service to you.

We do not expect to be late in rendering any of the services you have come to expect of us. But, if there is delay, remember, please, that speed is being sacrificed at home so that the boys "over there" may have more and better fighting equipment.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

Grandmother Moss, mother of Mrs. J. T. Rhoten, is very ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoten north of town. We hope for Mrs. Moss a speedy recovery.

Melvin Hunter tells us that while in Dallas during the holidays, he went out to Mesquite, Texas, for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Bynum. He says that the Bynums have a lovely home on their eighty acre farm.

The special Laymen's program at the Baptist Church last Sunday night was enjoyed by all. Messrs. Jim Ezell and Bowen Pope made very impressive talks, and we invite them back to our town.

There are a few cases of scarlet fever in McCaulley, and we hear that school may turn out within a few days until the epidemic has passed.

A rig is moving on the farm of D. M. Maberry one half mile from town and drilling will begin within the next few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rhoten who have been living in Fresno, California, are back in this community and at present are at home with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoten.

We will have to admit that the Japs are doing right well in their surprise attacks on some of the fronts, but just remember that "Preaching is never over till they sing."

Several candidates have announced for office in Fisher County. So far all that have announced are already in office. When the weather warms up and the geese fly over we will hear more about politics.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele, near the Gyp Mill will be completed within the next few days.

Mrs. Dick Maberry has been in the hospital in Sweetwater for the past few days and at this writing we understand that she is much improved.

Mrs. Frank Maberry has been ill for some time and is under-going treatment in a Stamford hospital.

Mrs. E. C. Waldrop is confined to her bed with scarlet fever, and we understand that there is another case of scarlet fever in the Keane family. We are hoping all will soon be up again.

Mrs. L. E. Rector has been on the sick list, and we are informed that Mrs. Rector under went treatment at a Stamford hospital last week.

Brother Wren, of Snyder, and a former President of the Brotherhood of District 8 will speak at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and night. The evening service will be a special Layman's service and all are cordially invited.

William Shira, who is attending an aviation school in Dallas, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Shira.

Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Smith, has recently been employed in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Callaway visited a daughter and family in East Texas last week.

Several members of the Baptist Church met at the church last Tuesday and worked on the building.

Mrs. Melvin Courtney is undergoing medical treatment in a Sweetwater hospital.

Patsy Vee, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Powers has been real sick for the past few days.

Sorry, folks, that we are reporting mostly bad news this week, but as most of our news is about sick folks, maybe next week it will be about well folks. We hope.

We hear that Hitler has moved his headquarters farther back in south Russia. We predict that the reason for such a move was that Adolph was getting rather sick seeing so many of his crack soldiers biting the dust.

A lot of big shots are talking that the Atlantic war is the war to win first. We do not agree. It seems to us that after such cowardly attack on our boys at Pearl Harbor that we should devote most of our time killing Japs. Any way the first thing, it appears to us, is to avenge the death of those boys who fell there and to get help to General McArthur at the earliest possible moment, and, too, Russia is doing pretty well with the hun.

The head lines in the dailypapers in England were: "The Yanks Are Coming". We might as well tell our English cousins that we are sure enough coming, but we are going to expect them to be in there pitching too. This here business of fighting and furnishing all the dough, the food and the guns is all right if we can stand it, but let's not overlook the Jap situation. They seem to have more guns than Senator Pepper thought for. —A Darden - O - Gram

Miss Brown, the County Home Demonstration Agent, will meet with the 4-H club girls at the school on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. T. T. Bingham is their sponsor.

Mrs. Willie Bristow who has been very ill with flu for several days, is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Wood who has been confined to her room for several days with pneumonia, is able to sit up a little.

We hope to have a large crowd attend the young people's prayer meeting Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holden visited Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Holden of Clyde Saturday night and attended the First Methodist church in Abilene Sunday.

Rev. J. C. Holden and son, Miles Edd and the native boy, Florentino Romero, returned last week from New York, when they were refused passage to return to their home in Garagoa, Colombia, S. A. for a while on account of war conditions. Rev. Holden remained in Abilene this week helping Rev. Hamblin in a revival at the First Methodist church.

Death-Test?... It was this way: ... One strict 5-quart fill of some one big-brand oil of quality went into each of six duplicate cars. The referee snapped the locks—no oil could be added.
